The plot is based on adult learning foreign students of English at the London College. Classes are held in the early evening, and educates students Mr. Brown, and if he can not hold a class, then put in his place someone else. The class consists of foreign students with varying degrees of knowledge of the English language, most of the humor in the show is based on a misunderstanding of the students of English words or terms, and largely depends on the stereotype of the culture of the country of origin.

Season 1 takes place during the school year. Earlier this year, Mr. Brown was employed by the head of Miss Courtney, and at the end of the year, students take on the Cambridge Certificate. Season 2 begins at the beginning of the next school year, with all ten previous students who failed the exam, and in the sequel, they are joined by two new student. Seasons 1 and 2 are mainly held in the classroom, but later passed and out of school.
